CAUCUS ON TARIFF BILL MOVING SLOWLY ALONG

With the Prospect That Bill
Will Not Reach Senate until June.

UNDERWOOD IS BACK

In Charge of Wilson's Pet
Measure in the House
Now.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 15.—Slow progress in consideration of the tariff bill by the Democratic House caucus has upset the prediction of administration leaders that the bill would be ready for the Senate by May 1. The caucus is less than half way through the proposed measure with several important schedules, notably wool and cotton, to be disposed of. The income tax also threatens to require considerable time as members desire to have it thoroughly explained. It will probably not be reached before the last of the week.

The deliberations were resumed today. Predictions were made that the caucus would not be through the bill until the middle of next week. In that event it can not be taken up in the House until late next week, the prospect is that it will be nearer June 1 than May 1 before it is ready for the Senate.

Underwood in Charge.
Representative Underwood was sufficiently recovered from his illness to resume charge of the bill in the caucus although his friends urged him to return home until completely well. He was so anxious to guide the administration measure, however, and to hasten its consideration that he remained on the floor.

Representative Levy, of New York, moved to place wheat on the free list. Representative Fowler, of Illinois, offered an amendment to increase the proposed duty on wheat from ten to fifteen cents a bushel. Both amendments were voted down.

They first spread papers covered with jam over the windows so as to deaden the sound and then smashed the large panes of glass with hammers. The jam prevented the broken glass from falling. The firemen who had been summoned by a passerby had scarcely begun their work when a series of explosions occurred and one fireman was seriously injured.

Provided No Charges Are Sustained against Their Efficiency.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 15.—Postmaster General Burleson announced today that it was the administration's policy to continue all Republican postmasters now in office to the end of their terms provided no charges were sustained against their efficiency. This policy applies to all classes of postmasters. "My department will be run on business lines and not by politics," said Mr. Burleson in explaining his policy. He declares there might be some removals but he believed the majority of postmasters were efficient and would not be disturbed. "There will have to be specific charges of inefficiency," he added, "before any one will be removed."

Mr. Burleson said the decision had been reached after conferences with President Wilson who favors the merit system. A plan is being worked out for securing efficiency under the civil service, fourth class postmasters having been placed under that jurisdiction by President Taft.

DEATH OF A GREEK

As Result of Shot is the Charge against Captured Fugitive.

Faithful vigilance and an aptitude for detection and apprehension of criminals on the part of Alonzo McCloud, a former member of the local police force, resulted in the arrest Tuesday of "Happy" Perkins, a former member of the gambling gentry located here at times, after a period of five years on a charge of murder.

Immediately after the crime the man accused of doing the deed disappeared and efforts at the time to locate him were futile. However, Mr. McCloud

Never Abandoned the Search and at various times he heard of his being in various parts of the country but could not sufficiently identify the fellow to warrant his arrest. Nine weeks ago Mr. McCloud heard that Perkins had come to the city, but not until Tuesday was the man wanted located. Through advice on the part of Mr. McCloud, his son, Policeman Oden McCloud, assisted by Roy Bailey, apprehended him in the Rush saloon in Glen Elk, and placed him behind prison bars.

A warrant charging Perkins with the murder of Peter Boulouris was sworn out by Policeman McCloud in Justice G. H. Gordon's court and he will be arraigned in that court later. Boulouris, the man murdered, was a Greek employed in the Manhattan cafe. One day in 1908 the Greek was Shot in the Leg and three days later he died in a local hospital of blood poisoning. It is alleged that Perkins did the shooting after a quarrel in the cafe over service.

As stated Perkins left for parts unknown and so much time had elapsed since that the murder was only recalled by the arrest Tuesday.

SATURDAY LAST DAY

Contestant Who Wins Paige or Ford Will Have Cause to Rejoice.

Who is there who has not always longed to run an automobile all their own? This life-long desire will be realized by a resident of Clarksburg and one in the territory covered outside of the city of Clarksburg, for the Daily Telegram is going to give away a Paige automobile, complete in every way. Also, to the contestant who comes out first in the division opposite to the one that won the first car, will be awarded a Ford, "Model T," complete.

The contestant who receives either of these cars will have every reason to rejoice, because they will represent well-earned victories in a contest and in addition will be a machine anyone would be proud to own.

In addition to the Paige and Ford automobiles will be given away on May 26, two tours to the Old World with all expenses paid, two Price and Teeple pianos, $125 diamond ring as a special prize and eight educational scholarships.

In selecting the prizes, the Daily Telegram decided on the very best prizes possible, and the ones that it felt would please the contestants. The prizes are the very best, and, too, contestants have a variety to choose from. First Period Closes Saturday.

Next Saturday night is the end of the first period and the contest for the $125 diamond ring. You can surely make yourself winner of a magnificent prize by turning in your subscriptions this week, should you miss one of the grand prizes by just a few subscriptions.

Contestants and their friends are reminded that only 100 of the five-vote coupons, or 500 votes, can be credited to the standing of any contestant each day. On Saturday, the expiration of the ten-vote coupon, thousands of votes had to be thrown away, while earlier in the contest, there were several days when the contestants did not have the full 100. Do not hold the five-vote coupons until Saturday; deposit in ballot boxes at once.

Not Too Late to Enter.
A number of men and women of Clarksburg and vicinity would like to enter the contest, but they are of the opinion that it is too late. It is never too late to enter. A few days ago a contestant did not know that she had been nominated and this week she is nearly at the head of her district.

A new yearly subscription delivered by carrier counts 6,400 votes and a $4.00 subscription delivered by mail counts 5,200 votes and a $3.00 subscription by mail counts 3,600 votes. By referring to the list of candidates, it can be seen that any contestant by securing a few subscriptions can be in the lead in any district.

It is not too late to enter, but do not put it off too long, but enter today and get the subscriptions necessary to win one of the grand prizes. Mrs. Fred C. Hightower, of Jackson, Tenn., won a five-passenger Paige the same make and model as the one offered in this contest, in three weeks' time, and the contest had been running five and one-half weeks when she entered. You can do the same thing, but the contest department would not advise you to put it off that long, but make up your mind today and start your campaign.
